

Find Good Proposals Through Marriage Beuros

Muslim weddings like the other wedding events are colorful and are full of celebrations for the bride and groom. There are no hard and fast rules on what to wear on the Muslim wedding. It depends on the place you live along with the status of Muslims there. You can make a wedding colorful if it isn't already. Couples have the right to make their wedding day a memorable one among the guests.

Choosing Colorful Wedding Attires and Themes

A Wedding is an important day in the life of a bride or groom. By decorating the wedding venue with flowers. You also need to make sure that the couple wears colorful outfits to stand out in a ceremony. The Muslim weddings are calm and serene with lot of fun and frolic.

Choose Black and White Colors

A lot of brides wear a deep red dress on their wedding day. However, other colors such as green, blue and yellow, red, etc. You can also avoid black and white colors as they made a wedding dull. Always choose shiny and bright colors to bring positivity to the environment.

Check with Local Customs and Traditions

Check with local traditions and customers before selecting the wedding dress color and decorations. The shades of green and pink add a lot of positivity to the environment. These are the colors that are mostly preferred by a lot of people in a Muslim matrimony. However, if you want, you are free to create your own trend by choosing contrasting colors. One thing which you must consider is the dress design needs to be simple.

Choosing Rainbow Colors

Colors such as orange and yellow with combination of red and maroon add a lot of creativity. You can also add rainbow colors to the wedding to make it a truly colorful event. Most of the times, outfits worn by Muslim brides have their feet and arms covered as they come under the flared dresses.
